

The NJ Do Not Call Legislation has eliminated being harrassed by unwanted callers and a relief of no longer being subjected to numerous inopportune phone calls. I support the law staying as it is. My parents are elderly and it is very difficult for them to get to the phone. This law is a blessing to them.